And we're getting the team together for our next phase of expansion in 2018/19.

Miss Ali Crossland (left) and Mrs Zoë de Quintal (right) will be teaching the two classes of Reception boys.

Mrs Juliet Rodger, Acting Head, will teach one class of Year 3 boys.

Mrs Julitta Heneage will teach the other class of Year 3 boys. Julitta was educated at Ampleforth College and Exeter University, where she read Theology (and gained a First). After a few years in marketing, Julitta trained as a teacher and has worked at Our Lady of Victories and St Clement Danes primary schools.

Miss Olivia Eadie joins the pre-prep team as a Key Stage 1 & 2 teacher. Olivia was educated at Sherborne School for Girls and Edinburgh University, where she read Spanish with Portuguese. Olivia has taught at Miss Daisy's in Chelsea and joins us from Garden House School.

Miss Abigail St Quinton joins us as a Year 1 teacher. Abi was educated at Cheltenham Ladies College and Bristol University, where she read Spanish.

After a couple of years in marketing, Abi trained as a teacher and joins us from Bousfield Primary School in South Bolton Gardens.

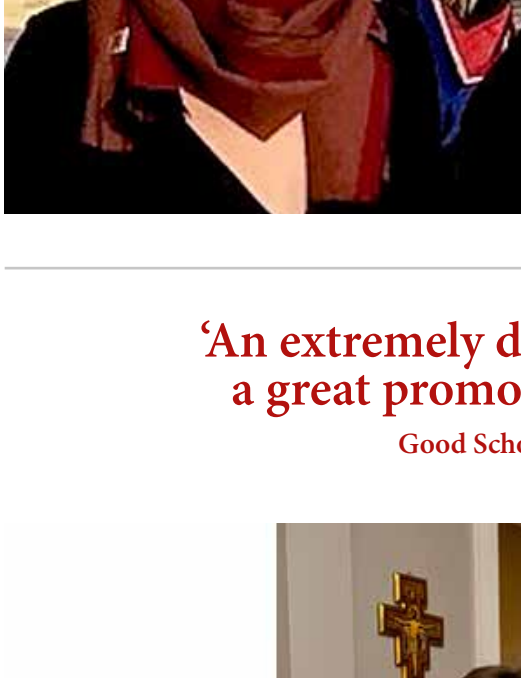

And three new teaching assistants

Mr Matthew Lewin was educated at Westminster School and graduates from UCL this summer, where he is reading English Language and Literature.

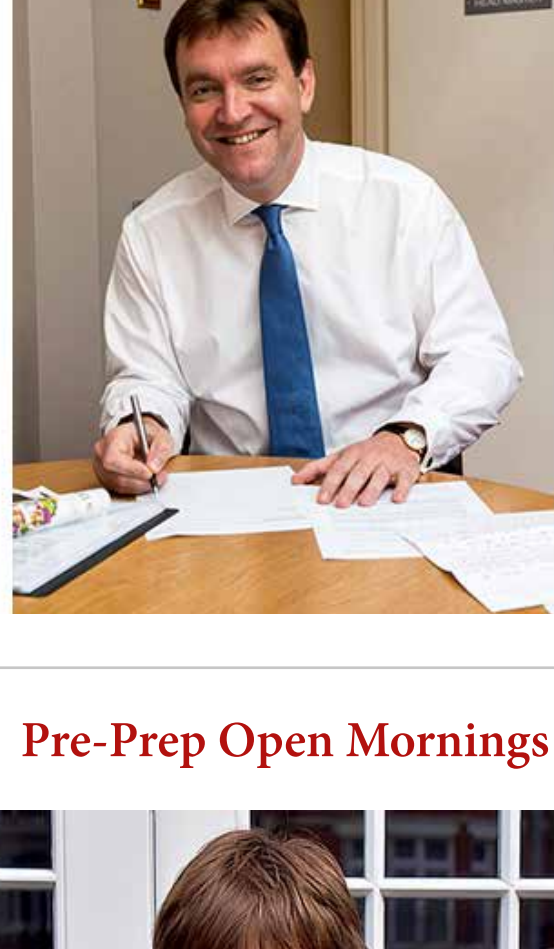

Mr Declan Amphlett was educated at Bromsgrove School and graduates from Trinity College, Cambridge, where he is reading French and Italian.

Miss Sarah Peacock was educated at Glenalmond College and graduates from Manchester University this summer, where she is reading Politics & Modern History.

'An extremely dedicated head and a great promoter of the school'
